REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD BE A

MENTOR

INSPIRATION

Mentors are a great source of motivation and inspiration. You are in a great position to offer guidance and be a great source of inspiration for a young person out there, who might be unsure of their next move after graduation or finding themselves in a rut in their current career, this can get them on the right track.

OPPORTUNITY

Mentors offer guidance in areas where the mentee may not have had the opportunity to experience or learn about. Their guidance and encouragement can help open doors for mentees by providing them with the knowledge on how to achieve their goals.

SELF DISCOVERY

As a good mentor, you will provide your mentee with valuable feedback and offer suggestions that enable them improve their skills. This will be an opportunity to provide constructive criticism to aid in their self-growth and professional development. This provides a unique opportunity to learn a lot about yourself in the process.

LIFE EXPERIENCES

While education and training are essential, Being a mentor, will provide a unique opportunity to transfer life experiences unto the life of another who could greatly benefit. After all, you have probably been there and done that.

PERSONAL FULFILLMENT

After achieving great success over the years, it may be time to fill the void that may exist, and that may be the difference in ensuring a young person transitions from being ordinary to exceptional. What could be more fulfilling than this?

PERSPECTIVE

Being in a different generational group, there is a tendency to have lost touch with what the younger generation may be dealing with. This provides a great avenue to be in touch with the many challenges younger folks may be dealing with on a day to day basis, and chance to help influence positive change.
